

Jock Safari Lodge is perfectly positioned in the southern area of the Kruger National Park, resting at the confluence of the Mitomeni and Biyamiti rivers. This 6,000ha exclusive concession is situated half way between Skukuza and the Malelane Gate. The legendary wildlife experiences are enhanced by the exclusive dry river bed traversing that only Jock guests can enjoy in renowned Big Five territory.

Guests have a choice between two luxury lodges - each recently refurbished showcasing its own essence and style. Lodges are designed in harmony with their surroundings where guests can experience nature in sublime comfort. Both lodges operate independently, each with a full staff complement including its own management team, chef brigade, hosts and experienced field guides.
